Is there any impact on diagnostics with iOS 9?

Yes, there are small changes if device has iOS 9 and diagnostics process is started.

The user has to establish trust for the application developer before starting the application. This can be done in the device settings. Also note that internet connection on the mobile device is needed when establishing trust. Please refer to manufacturer documentation:
https://support.apple.com/en-us/HT204460