

I have erased my computer now, how can I make it "usable" again?

Running the Blancco Drive Eraser based erasure does not leave any data on a hard drive (or an SSD). This includes operating systems (Windows, Linux, etc.). To get your computer into "usable state", an operating system needs to be installed. Use your operating system's installation CD/DVD or a bootable USB stick to re-install the operating system.