

Is any interaction needed on the Windows Phone device during the erasure?

The user should not use the device when the erasure is ongoing. This may interfere with the erasure process.

Interaction with the device is only needed in cases when there is a prompt for this in Blanco Mobile Diagnostics and Erasure (for example, device in "Requires attention" state).