

My device was lost/stolen. Can you execute remote erasure?

It's not possible to erase stolen devices remotely using Blancco. In order to securely erase mobile devices or computers, you (or someone from your organization) must have a physical access to the target device.